FAQs:

A: Yes.

Q: Can I register for both streams and participate in the entire program?

A: Yes again.

Q: What if I register and pay but cannot attend a session at the last minute?

A: Unless you give 48 hours notice you will forfeit the registration fee for the session you have to miss.

Q: How is this series different from other learning events I have attended?

A: It is interactive, information packed, based on real experience and will feature guest speakers from the industry who have proven success with the learning topic. Additionally it will have multiple media learning incorporated into the sessions such as texting the facilitator/speaker in real time, man-on-the-street interviews and lunch-N-learn recall games. So... a lot more fun than sitting through a power point.

Q: What if I have an industry speaker I would like to recommend?

A: Excellent! Email his/her name, company, contact info and why you think this person is great to mgervais@global-leadership.ca. We welcome all suggestions!

Q: What about food? Will there be any, do I have to pay for it and what if I have dietary restrictions?

A: Yes lunch is served, it will be good, your lunch is paid for by Alberta Agriculture, and if you have dietary restrictions you can note them on your registration form.
